

1

2

3

6

KITCHEN bath

4

3

8 7

Tom Lerental
for LiLi Tile

1

product Zipper standout The Tomma Bloom studio founder known for graphic textiles translates that pattern sensibility to a fashion-forward handmade cement tile offered in an 8-inch-square format. lilitile.com

Piero Lissoni
for Salvatori

2

product Hito
standout The Interior Design Hall of Famer's customizable, streamlined bath line encompasses a vanity with integrated washbasin, drawers, shelves, mirrors, stools, and more in materials including the brand's core stone palette. salvatoriofficial.com

Raf Simons
for Kvadrat

3

product Shaker System
standout The Belgian fashion designer builds on his hanging bar, upholstered in wool-polyamide Vidar 4, by venturing into bath accessories—robes, towels, slippers, etc.—available in the same limited color palette. kvadrat.dk

Philippe Starck
for Duravit

4

product Soleil
standout Meant to evoke the restorative nature of the sea, the French designer's organically shaped bathtub pairs nicely with its matched washbasin range—all in durable DuraSolid ceramic, a material proprietary to the brand. duravit.com

Ali Budd
for Artistic Tile

5

product Opia Lilac standout The interior designer's jazzy honed-stone demilune mosaic pattern, inspired by art deco motifs and accented with a touch of polished stainless steel, juxtaposes five marbles: Dolomiti, Lilac, White Sand, Thassos, and Statuary. artistictile.com

Vincent Van Duysen
for Motteni&C

6

product Kitchen Box
standout Designed by the brand's Belgian creative director, the open-front wooden storage module (enclosing an optional LED-lit aluminum-edged shelf) can also be specified as seating or a support element for a snack table. moltengroup.com

Benjamin Hubert
for Dongshu

7

product Breeze
standout The Layer founder designed a coffee machine for the Korean brand that's crafted of pleated soft-touch polymer (in a pared-back palette) and features curved, midcentury-inflected lines, a tinted water tank, and an adjustable drip tray. dongshuh.com

Daniel Germani
for Cosentino

8

product Dekton Pietra Kode Avorio standout The architect translates Italian Avorio limestone into the brand's carbon-neutral Dekton ultra-compact stone, available in slabs of various thicknesses that resist UV rays, scratches, and stains. cosentino.com

PHOTOGRAPHY: RINE OMANN; PORTRAIT: JEAN-BAPTISTE MONDINO